

Checklist

| Cervid Owners Checklist of Requirements |   |
|---|---|
|   | Register and receive a PID number - click here to register or to log in  |
|   | Register any information changes in the PID system within 30 days   |
|   | Register and receive a Domestic Cervid Production Farm Licence , renew annually  |
|   | CFIA to conduct TB and Brucellosis test Year 1 of operation; then every 5 years   |
|   | Follow tagging requirements, click here to order tags  |
|   | Register all cervid births in the Cervid Farming System (CFS)  |
|   | Report all movements, deaths and slaughter into the CFS within 30 days   |
| □dat                                | CFIA Transportation Authorization Permit for movement of animals. Permit valid for 30 days from e of issue   |
|   | Submit all heads with ears and ear tags in place for all slaughtered cervids (commercial or on farm) the Alberta Chronic Wasting Disease Mandatory Surveillance Program – this is the producer's ponsibility  |
| □Ser                                | If you are importing or exporting cervids, an import or export permit is required from Regulatory vices Division and a Transportation Authorization permit.   |
|   | If you wish to participate in the National CWD program you will: -make application ; - conduct a herd audit within 4 months of the application; - conduct an annual 3 rd party audit for the 1 st 3 years, audit every 3 years after that; and, - submit all heads for CWD testing |
|   | Submit annual inventory report in CFS — Elk year end Dec 31 st and Deer year end Mar 31 st   |
|   | Report antler production – Elk only – Velvet Antler Removal Certification  |

| Better Management Practices   |
|---|
| ☐ Review Directives and Procedures Manual                            |
| ☐ Registration of all additional livestock premises in the PID system       |
| ☐ Adoption of Biosecurity measures – click here for more information |