

International Relations and Marketing – Staff Bio

CHRISTOPHER ROTH

International Affairs and Advocacy Officer

780-644-8958

christopher.roth@gov.ab.ca

Christopher Roth is an International Affairs and Advocacy Officer responsible for the advancement of the International Relations and Marketing (IRM) Section's relations and trade advocacy influence across international regions.

Christopher has been with IRM Section since 2013 and is part of the Americas-Europe unit, focusing on enhancing Alberta's advocacy and policy positions, government relations and political awareness with Europe, the United States and South America.

A native of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Christopher received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Rider University in Lawrenceville, New Jersey and has previously taught Western democratic principles to international students in South Korea.

2018

Alberta, All Canadians