

Changes to the Wheat and Barley Marketing System Jan./Feb. 2012

Frequently Asked Questions

In January and February of 2012, Alberta Agriculture and Rural Development staff held a series of information sessions on changes to the Canadian grain industry as a result of the passing of Bill C-18, the Marketing Freedom for Grain Farmers Act, on December 15, 2011. At these sessions, grain farmers had questions regarding the forthcoming changes and how they would affect the industry and their farm businesses.

These questions have been grouped into 10 themes.

General

Grain Grading and Quality

Canadian Grain Commission

Marketing my Grain – General

Marketing my Grain – Contracting

Marketing my Grain – Futures Markets

Grain Handling and Transportation

Canadian Wheat Board

Research and Development

Managing My Farm